If you are being bullied

Don’t let the bully see that you are upset or crying.

Don’t get angry with the bully and hit them.

You can try to stop the bully by

Looking at the bully in the eyes and telling them to go away.

Or don’t speak to the bully and walk away.

Tell someone you trust

Remember it is not your fault that you are being bullied.

Some people may need someone to support them to go through this information so that they understand.
What is bullying?
Bullying is where someone hurts or frightens you on purpose. Bullying is when it happens more than once.

Bullying is
- having nasty text messages, emails or telephone calls.
- when someone kicks, hits and pushes you or when someone touches you when you don’t like it.
- when you feel sad by being left out of a group of friends.
- when you have been teased or when people say nasty things about you.

Who can I tell?
Do not try to deal with problems on your own. There is always someone who can help.

A helping hand is when you think of 5 people who you would tell if you are being bullied.

Who is on your helping hand?
Can you think of 5 people you can tell?

Do not blame yourself. It is not your fault that you are being bullied.
